Thank You Volunteers

Special thanks to our wonderful, hard-working volunteers. It is you, along with our dedicated board of directors, that make SCO a success. Our young organization is growing due to those who write our newsletters and press releases, talk to our radio stations and put posters up all over town. Our educational outreach is expanding because of our string class volunteers. All of our musicians are volunteers and they put in hours of practice time to share music with our community. And our performances for the community are put together by our dedicated concert coordinators who ensure that we have all that we need.

We offer our deepest appreciation to the following people:

Ranae LaFerney, Margaret Whitely, Emma Mitchell, Kate Powers, Martha Baker, Jan Kitzis, Joan Hinton, Mary Moon, Chris Masters, Chuck Thompson, Paula Obreski, Alan Halfhil (frugalfilmmakers.com), Chris Burt, Sarah Van Ausdle, Wendy Whittemore, Rex Abbott, Beth Pratt, Vern Fosket and Sequim High School, the Sequim City Band, Trinity United Methodist Church, and all of you who have lent a helping hand throughout the year - THANK YOU!

About the Sequim Community Orchestra

Our Mission is threefold:

1. Education in orchestral music and performance for musicians of all ages.
2. Entertaining and informing our community through orchestral performances.
3. Supporting strings education for students in Sequim area schools.

Our Vision is to provide musical education in our community for students of all ages, including supporting strings instrumental education in the Sequim School District. We began our first class as an after-school program during the 2013-14 school year. During the 2014-15 school year, we will grow to two after-school classes at Greywolf Elementary School.

Join us! No audition is required. Under direction of Phil Morgan-Ellis, we rehearse Tuesdays, 7PM - 9PM at the James Center for Performing Arts, 202 N. Blake Avenue, Sequim.

We perform for our community twice yearly as the full orchestra and in smaller groups at local venues and special events.

Our Board of Directors:

Lilias Green, Founder and President
Phil Morgan-Ellis, Founder and Music Director
