Thank you to our hard-working volunteers, each one of whom has helped to enhance the education of dozens of local students. From our bake sales and donated professional services to the design of our materials and press releases, from teachers willing to spend their own time with students to members who organize our concerts, the community of giving individuals that surrounds this orchestra is amazing and we are grateful to you all.

Without our business and education community, our Strings Kids program would be impossible! We offer our deepest thanks to the Sequim School District and the staff of both Helen Haller and Sequim Middle Schools, the Sequim Boys & Girls Club, the Greywolf and Helen Haller PTA organizations, Strait Music, Joyful Noise Music Center, The Sequim City Band, The Violin Shop, The UPS Store, The Lodge at Sherwood Village, and the Sequim-Dungeness Chamber of Commerce.

Join us in providing stringed instrument education for students in Sequim.

Donations are gladly accepted, and we can always use an extra hand! To learn more, visit our website at www.sequimcommunityorchestra.org.

The SCO Strings Kids

This year marked our fourth of providing instruction on stringed instruments for students in Sequim schools. With donations, grants and fundraising, we have been able to provide classes for our students with no charge to their families.

Generous donors have also gifted the SCO with instruments and music, helping make classes accessible for all students.

Our Strings Coordinator, Emma Mitchell, and Joann Judd, teacher for our beginning class, have found volunteers both from within SCO and from their own musical connections in our area. The students have performed both on their own and with the larger SCO ensemble. Our advanced class even worked on a community outreach project, joining the residents of The Lodge at Sherwood Village for a coffee and doughnut social before performing a few of the selections they will perform on Friday, May 26th at 6:30 at the Sequim Middle School.

All of us at the SCO applaud the efforts of students, parents and teachers alike in their hard work in making the SCO Strings Kids program a success!

Thank you, Program Sponsors!
